

Black Box Test Plan

The purpose of our black box will be to test multiple functionalities of our project. These functionalities include logging into the system with an account, adding a budget, checking the status of that budget, and logging out of the system.

Test #1

The user will log into the system with a username and password.

- The user will enter the correct username and the correct password.
 - This will pass the test.
- The user will enter the correct username and an incorrect password.
 - This will fail the test.

Test #2

The user will create a new budget.

- The user will fill out the information for the budget.
 - This will pass the test.
- The user will confirm the information for the budget with missing fields.
 - This will fail the test.

Test #3

The user will check current budgets.

- The user will check to see if any budgets are being displayed.
 - This will pass the test.
- The user will check the information for the budget.
 - This will pass the test.

Test #4

The user will go to the log out button.

- The user will log out of the system.
 - This will pass the test.